Dear Michael,

My Fine Arts Commission colleagues were delighted when I told them of our conversation a few weeks ago, concerning the approval by your Board of the concept of mobile exhibits designed for display in our Agency among others. I had hoped that by now there might be additional news about specific exhibition plans, but of course I realize that such programs take much planning and must take their turn in the busy schedules of those responsible.

Our next Commission meeting will be on October 17. Is it possible that we might have some further word in time for me to include it on the agenda for that meeting?

Sincerely,

Chairman, Fine Arts Commission
